

ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF WEST HARTFORD
REDEFINING "KENNEL" IN THE WEST HARTFORD CODE OF ORDINANCES 177-2

WHEREAS, the West Hartford Town Council has determined that the keeping of pets and dogs in particular is beneficial in the Town of West Hartford;

WHEREAS, dogs sometimes motivate their owners to exercise or walk or run more, and contribute to their owners having lower cholesterol, lower blood pressure, and fewer heart attacks;

WHEREAS, dogs also reduce stress, improve social lives, and reduce allergies in children;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF WEST HARTFORD THAT it hereby redefines the term "Kennel" found in the West Hartford Code of Ordinances Chapter 177, entitled Zoning, subsection 177-2, entitled Definitions and word usage:

§177-2. Definitions and word usage.

The keeping of [three] four or more dogs over the age of six months, for each dwelling unit.
